Dear Bevan.

I hear that Sir Charles Lyall's operation went off very well, and that there was not even any rise of temperature.
I believe that he was to have left the nursing-home yesterday; at any rate, you may assure Goldzyker that he is now all right again.

I am sorry that you should have had to wait so long for an answer to your letter; I was away when it arrived & it came into my hands only to-day.
Yours sincerely
T. W. Arnold.
